Donnogh Fitz John O Hart, Owen O Doghertie, Terlagh mac Brehoune, and William Gallagher, are fled to the Woods and Mountains, where they stand upon their keeping, so as they are not answerable or amenable to Law, but wilfull contemners of the same. And forasmuch as the Actors of these disorders and offences cannot as yet be apprehended, whereby they may be punished by the ordinary course of Law, whence We might justly be moved, according to the former usage and custom in this Kingdom in cases of like nature, to cause them to be forthwith proclaimed Rebels and Traytors; yet in mercy to them, We think fit hereby to charge and command them upon their duty and allegiance to His Majesty, that they and every of them do before the First day of February next, render their persons to any of His Majesties Justices of the peace, and submit themselves to His Majesties Justice to be tryed for their offences according to the Lawes of the Land, wherein if they or any of them doe fail, We do hereby publish and declare, that he or they so failing, are from and immediately after the said First day of February next, to be called, reputed and taken for notorious Rebels and Traytors against His Majesty, and accordingly to be prosecuted by all His Majesties loving and good subjects in all hostile manner. And We declare further, that whatsoever person or persons shall comfort, relieve or abet them, or any of them, they are and shall be reputed, deemed and adjudged Traytors in like degree with the forenamed Traytors and Rebels themselves, and to be proceeded against according to Law. And We do in His Majesties Name straightly charge and command all His Majesties Loyal Subjects, upon their duty of allegiance to His Majesty, not onely to forbear to receive or relieve the persons aforesaid, or any of them, but also to make diligent search and enquiry in what place or places the said persons shall from time to time lurk or be relieved, and by all means possible to prosecute, apprehend and take the bodies of them, and them to bring or cause to be brought under safe custody, unto the High Sheriffs of the respective Counties where any of them shall be apprehended, to be by such Sheriffs kept in strict and safe custody, till We upon notice thereof shall give further direction concerning them, or resisting or refusing to be taken, to kill them or any of them. And We do hereby declare, that whosoever shall after the said First day of February next, bring unto any Sheriff the body of the said Redmond O Hanlan, Laughlin mac Redmond O Hanlan, Daniel mac Murphy mac Tirlagh roe O Murphy, Cormuck Raver O Murphy, Hugh Turr O Murphy, Bryan Moyle O Neale, James Roe, Hugh mac Shane, Peter Pill, James mac Nicholas O Murphy, Thomas Willson, Tirlagh mac Patrick Coam O Hanlan, Owen oge Carthy, Cnogher Reardane alias Griagh, John Howrane, Hugh Noonane, Shane Kittagh O Donnell, James Gallagher mac Edmond Dorrogh, Donnogh Boy O Gallagher, Tirlagh mac Kolgen, Hugh Bane mac Brehoune, Donnell oge O Donnell mac Donnell oge, William O Keavine, Bryan mac Donnogh, Donnogh Fitz John O Hart, Owen O Doghertie, Tirlagh mac Brehoune, and William Gallagher, or any of them alive, or kill any of them, and bring his head to the Sheriff of the County where he shall be killed, to be by such Sheriff set up in some publick place in that County, shall have for his reward for each person so brought in, or his head, Ten pounds, for payment whereof We will give warrant as occasion shall require; and whosoever of the said proclaimed persons, or any other, shall after the said first day of February next, apprehend & bring unto the High Sheriff of the County where such person shall be apprehended, or resisting, shall kill any of the said Rebels and Traytors particularly named as aforesaid, he shall, together with his said reward, receive his pardon. And towards the speedy effecting of this Service, all Commanders of Horse and Foot, and all other His Majesties Officers and loving Subjects are to be aiding and assisting, as they and every of them will answer the contrary at their perils.
